FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Indianapolis Legal and Tax Advisors Pittman P.C. Acquires Small Business Accounting Services

September 16, 2015, Indianapolis – Indianapolis-based Pittman P.C. recently acquired Small Business Accounting Services, Inc. (SBAS), also located in Indianapolis. Pittman P.C. will continue to work out of their offices at 333 East Ohio Street, and have added one SBAS employee to the Pittman P.C. Team. With the involvement of SBAS owner, Brian Johnson, the transition of SBAS to Pittman P.C. will take place through the end of September.

As local providers of accounting and tax preparation services, Paul Pittman, Principal at Pittman P.C., and Mr. Johnson have been peers for 25 years. When Mr. Johnson felt it was time to change his focus to business consulting and other opportunities, Mr. Pittman was the natural choice to continue to serve SBAS tax and accounting clients.

According to Mr. Johnson, “Paul and I have worked together for decades on a variety of business related matters. We have a shared desire to serve our clients in ways that provide them with the best chance to succeed. As a one-stop shop for legal services, tax preparation and accounting, Paul and his team at Pittman P.C. will be able to continue the level of knowledge and service our clients have come to trust.”

“We appreciate the opportunity to bring new clients in the fold that have the same expectations as our current client base,” said Mr. Pittman. “Just like SBAS, our practice is based on relationships with our clientele and their families. We work hard to listen to their needs and offer advice to both inspire and protect their businesses and families. We look forward to serving SBAS clients in the same manner.”
